Jane Street Bus Rapid Transit | City of Vaughan

STUDY AREA

 Bus Terminal  Subway Station

Vaughan is one of the fastest-growing cities in Canada and Jane Street is one of the city's busiest corridors. Jane Street is transforming with new housing, jobs, and increased travel demand. To accommodate future growth and reduce congestion, more rapid transit is needed to keep people moving.

York Region Rapid Transit Corporation (YRRTC) is conducting the Jane Street Bus Rapid Transit (BRT) study, from Highway 7 to Major Mackenzie Drive to evaluate BRT options along Jane Street, such as dedicated bus rapidway lanes.
